Broadband costs

BT Costs

(bt.com)

- From £7.50 a month

- Virgin media

(<http://www.virginmedia.com/>)

- From £5 per month

Both require a phone line at £16.99 per month
(not needed if you already have a phone line)

All the companies will try to sell you expensive deals and won't tell you about cheaper deals unless you ask them!

Don't feel forced into buying there and then. They often use tactics like:

“I can do this special deal but only if you sign up now!”

“Don't worry you can cancel with no charge if you change your mind”
